

Book Launch: Dr Eben Kirksey and Freedom in West Papua

Freedom in Entangled Worlds: West Papua and the Architecture of Global Power – Eben Kirksey

The Asia Pacific Centre for the Responsibility to Protect, and the R2P Student Coalition, in conjunction with Dr Annie Pohlman from the School of Languages and Comparative Cultural Studies, UQ, are proud to host the launch of Dr Eben Kirksey's book, Freedom in Entangled Worlds. This important new book examines the struggle for independence in West Papua, highlighting the resilience and pragmatism of activists under Indonesian control.

Please join us in celebrating the launch of this new book examining efforts for freedom in West Papua.

Dr Eben Kirksey is Lecturer in Environmental Humanities at UNSW, Sydney. Eben first travelled to West Papua as an exchange student in 1998, and has returned many times to work and conduct research. He completed his M.Phil at Oxford University and his PhD at the University of California, Santa Cruz, in cultural anthropology. He later undertook two postdoctoral fellowships at the University of Pittsburgh and the CUNY Graduate Center.
